

NOTICE—Wm. B. Elch is our authorized agent for the sale of the Journal for the States of Tennessee, Alabama, and Georgia, and all points south. Persons desiring of subscribing for the Journal, either in large or small quantities, will do well to address him at Nashville, Tennessee, Box 101.

ACTS OF THE LAST LEGISLATURE.—We have a few copies of the act passed at the last session of the Legislature for sale at $1.

Important Notice.—Subscribers to the paper should observe our published terms and conditions. Any order for the paper should be accompanied by the proper amount in cash or by check or money order.

Gold being tumbled down in New York.—To see the technical language of "the place where merchants must congregate," in consequence of a large supply in the market. During the past few days there has been a decline of some seven or eight per cent. Yesterday it was quoted as low as 191, and the prediction is indulged in that in a few days it will be down to 190 or 189. But the most singular fact noticeable is that as gold goes down, the price of vegetables goes up.

Strawberries.—Yesterday a paragraph from a New York paper about the low price of strawberries. We are informed by our postmaster that the price there is much below our post-office is instructed to sell at 30, or three-cent envelopes are 30 per pack of 10, or 65 per thousand.

Louisville.—The house was closed last night by the death of Mr. Macan's son, and the play of the Romance of a Poor Young Man was not excitedly rendered. To-night, his last appearance, will be rendered in the hall, with Mr. Macan as the hero. The play is a comedy, and the audience is expected to be large. The matinee this afternoon is for the benefit of Mrs. Sargent, who has been a faithful and industrious worker throughout the season. In addition to the workmen of Louisville, which was presented in the hall, the additional new local scenes, which will present a handsome silver goblet to the holder of the number which will be drawn from the lot of tickets. We expect to see the audience crowded.

Flow Water.—The river is fast rising to flood height. Yesterday evening the water was up to the pavements and doors along the levee. The houses that were submerged a few weeks ago, and which have just been put in good order, will again be flooded. The water is rising so fast that it is feared that the levee will be breached. The water is now at the level of the city, and the houses are being submerged. The water is now at the level of the city, and the houses are being submerged.

We are informed that on board the cars from St. Louis to Cincinnati, yesterday morning, a United States detective had in custody a prisoner, who was arrested in St. Joseph, Mo., charged with being an accomplice in the late assassination of President Lincoln. He was taken to the St. Louis police station, and was held in custody. The detective was accompanied by a large number of men, and the prisoner was taken to the St. Louis police station, and was held in custody.

Last night, without the fear of God before his eyes, took a horse, with saddle and bridle, from a blacksmith shop on Market, between Third and Seventh streets, in the hands of C. A. Herman, of St. Louis. The horse was a bay, and was worth $100. The blacksmith was a German, and was named John. The horse was taken to the St. Louis police station, and was held in custody.

The good people of this State who live on the Kentucky river, and who have an interest in the navigation of that river, are hereby notified that the advertisement calling a meeting of the corporation on the 10th inst., at Frankfort, to hold and select the corporation to place the work immediately under contract.

We are granted in home able to inform our Nashville friends that the beautiful and very desirable house, which we have been returning in triumph from numerous and brilliant engagements in Europe and the eastern portion of this country, is on her way to this city, and will be with them in two or three days. They cannot cross it too early.

The Ashland (Ohio) Telegraph says the negro in the participation of that, and the charge of being a vagrant and violating the laws of war, were found guilty and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in the State penitentiary at Frankfort. They will be forwarded to their destination, under strict guard, this morning.

The Press and Times newspapers of Nashville, Tennessee, have just been consolidated, and a new paper appears as the Nashville Press and Times. It is a beautiful sheet, and will be the publishers, and C. M. Jones is the editor. The new arrangement, we hope, will result in the establishment of an able journal at Nashville.

BARBERS NEWS.—An unusual amount of business was transacted at Barbers No. 1 yesterday. The number of customers from various parts of the city, and from the surrounding country, were estimated at three hundred and thirty-five. The barbers were very busy, and the customers were very satisfied.

Capt. Tucker, of Breckinridge county, who has been Captain of a heavy dragoon company for some time, has been promoted to Major. He is a brave and able officer, and has been very successful in his command. He is now in command of the 1st Cavalry Regiment, and is very popular with his men.

Wood's Theatre.—The changing tide of the season is now at hand, and the theatre is preparing for the summer season. The new season will begin on the 15th inst., and will be a very successful one. The theatre is now in the hands of Mr. Wood, and he is very anxious to please his patrons.

Mr. Wm. Lawrence, an citizen residing on the highway with his son last Tuesday, near Lawrence, was attacked by two deserters from the Federal army, who attempted to rob him. He was killed, and his son was wounded. The deserters were captured, and are now in custody.

TRAVELERS' INSURANCE COMPANY.—Mr. Alfred Price is the agent of this company, and his peculiar office should receive the attention of every one who travels or is engaged in extra hazardous employment.

The price of oats has tumbled down from 80 to 70 cents at Cincinnati, and the price there is now 60 cents. The market is overstocked, and the price is expected to fall further.

Our negro population has heard of General Palmer's new order instituting them to the city in search of employment. Yesterday the Police Marshal issued passes to sixty-five negroes.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has received orders from the Government to provide transportation for fifty thousand men to come West over the road. These are the veterans of Sherman's army.

Particular attention is called to Greater No. 2 of General Jackson. Claims against most prepare themselves with proper documents before they will receive any attention.

J. B. Rice, one of the oldest actors and theatrical managers in the country, has been elected Mayor of Chicago by a thousand Union votes.

The Sodality Societies of St. John's Church give a Picnic on Monday next, near the Fair Grounds.

One deserter was brought here from Nashville yesterday.
